Vehicles may be inspected from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 15 through 19. Vehicles may be started only from 8 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. June 19. All vehicles are sold as is with no warranties. Thirty-day temporary tags will be available for purchase on site the day of the auction for $10 cash.

A deposit of at least 25 percent of the total purchase price must be paid on the day of the auction with the remaining balance paid in full by 2 p.m. Monday, June 22. Beginning July 1 no more partial payments will be accepted; all vehicles must be paid for in full the day of the auction.

All purchased vehicles must be removed from the auction site by Friday, June 26.

Surplus property auctions provide the general public an opportunity to purchase quality goods at reduced prices and enable the state to recoup a portion of its initial investment. Miscellaneous property and vehicle auctions have generated more than $2.2 million to date during fiscal year 2009.

Public auctions are the last step in the state's surplus program. State agencies declare property as surplus because it is damaged or at the end of its life cycle for government use. The property is then made available to other state agencies, state higher education facilities, tax-supported agencies, municipal corporations and other political subdivisions of the state, including public schools. Remaining property is sold at the public auctions.

The next auction after this June 20 auction is a miscellaneous property auction, which will be held July 18.
