

Accelerated Death Benefits

If you have been diagnosed with a terminal illness and according to a physician, have less than 12 months to live, accelerated death benefits allow you to take a cash advance of a portion of your total life insurance benefit. You can request up to 100 percent of the life policy amount.