

Claims Appeals

Keep copies of all your bills, claims and correspondence. In some cases, a claim may be denied by your third-party administrator. You have the right to appeal that decision. If you wish to appeal a denied or reduced claim, there are some specific steps to take. Refer to your third-party administrator plan description for details on appealing claims.